ago the Republican made a net gain of five governorships.

Missouri elected Phil M. Donnelly, Democratic attorney, to the post which Republican Governor Warren C. Hearnes gave up to run for the senate. In Washington, the Democratic candidate piled up a lead in voting that followed the pattern of the Roosevelt-DeWey presidential race.

RESULTS IN DOUBT

In Illinois, Ohio and Delaware—under Republican Governor—Democratic nominees were either out in front or running so close behind their Republican rivals that the outcome was in doubt.

Senator Mon C. Wallgren, Democrat, was running ahead of the Republican incumbent, Governor Arthur B. Langlie, in the early count in Washington. Another Democrat, Senator Samuel D. Jackson of Indiana, was in front of the Republican incumbent, Governor Elletts Hall, in that state, which has had Democratic governors since 1882.

The home of John and Patricia Alden still stands in Dawson, Alaska. Near it is a monument to Capt. Miles Standish.

Ont. Liquor Board Chairman Resigns

TORONTO, Nov. 8.—(CP)—Premier George Drew announced last night that the Ontario government has accepted the resignation of Peter Goggin as chairman of the Ontario Liquor Control Board, effective Dec. 31, and said Mr. Goggin will continue as chairman "long enough to continue the direction of the affairs of the Board through the most difficult period of the year."

Mirror Children Aid Kinsmen Fund

This year the children of Mirror did not make their annual Halloween night pilgrimage seeking peanuts, apples, candies and other Halloween goodies, nor were they out to mischief. They canvassed for the one-cent tickets which kinsmen purchased through the week with the object of supplying milk for the children of Britain. For each 10 tickets collected, a quart of milk will be sent.

The children in the three junior rooms in the school in Mirror collected $20 on Halloween night for the Milk-for-Britain fund. C. A. Venn, president of the Kinsmen Club in Edmonton, expressed appreciation for the donation, which will help considerably to swell the club's fund. The money arrived in Edmonton by means of a money order sent by the teacher at Mirror, Mrs. G. L. Thordarson.

City Expecting Reach New High In Collections

With approximately 90 per cent of the 1944 tax levy collected up to Oct. 31, city assessors' officials are confident that the collection of current land taxes this year will exceed the all-time collection percentage record set in 1943 when 92.2 of the current land tax levy was achieved. It is anticipated that approximately 93 per cent of the current levy will be collected.

At the close of this year it is estimated that the current arrears of the valuation of the 30,000 lots at the end of 1943, and were approximately $1,000,000 about four years ago.

Collections of current and arrears of taxes this year will set an all-time high record, one official stated.

Wallace Calls For Full Steam Ahead

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Vice-president Wallace, interpreting early returns to assure the re-election of President Roosevelt, issued a statement last night calling for "full steam ahead."

The vice president told the Associated Press: "Roosevelt until 1944 means a country continuing, moving with full steam ahead. The vote constitutes a mandate to Congress to prepare the way for $60,000,000 post-war jobs."

Wallace was rejected for nomination for President Roosevelt's running mate for a second time when the Democratic National Convention at Chicago last summer elected Senator Harry Truman of Missouri.

Clare Boothe Luce Is Said Re-Elected

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Nov. 8.—(AP)—The Bridgeport Post-Telegraph today claimed re-election of U.S. Representative Clare Boothe Luce (Rep.), by 1,865 votes over Margaret E. Connors (Dem.) for Connecticut's fourth congressional seat. The newspaper said its returns were unofficial but complete. It gave Mrs. Luce, blond playwright, serving her first term in the 101st U.S. House of Representatives, 99,381.

Premier to Meet Legion Officials

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—(CP)—Canadian Legion officials said yesterday Premier Mackenzie King has agreed to meet the Dominion executive council of the Legion to discuss the reinforcement of Canadian forces overseas. No time yet has been set for the interview but it is expected it will take place by Wednesday.

ate will be enabled to route important legislation through the Senate. The United States constitution requires that a two-thirds majority of the Senate approve all treaties made with other countries.

Since James H. Roosevelt carried the party into power in 1932 he has been the central figure of the Senate. His leadership sharply reduced their majority and the Republicans this year, for the first time in 12 years, had a chance of gaining the slim majority.

Before the Magistrate

Hugh Melnick, who was given the "minimum fine" for intoxication by Magistrate Harold L. Howe, K.C., Wednesday morning was angry and wanted to talk. He talked himself into being recalled, and the penalty was raised. Still angry, he lingered in the prisoner's box. When he refused to take a seat he ordered, he was bodily dragged from the court by the turnkey. Instead of a fine of $20, as was told he would have to pay $30, or spend 30 days in jail.

Milder Weather Is Continuing

Comparatively mild weather is continuing in the Edmonton area with the official forecast predicting it will be "fair and mild today and Thursday."

Light rain fell Tuesday night to the extent of .01 of an inch. Fog settled down on the city Tuesday evening clearing at about 5 a.m. Wednesday.

440 Nippon Planes Bagged in Attacks

PEARL HARBOR, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Three fleet carrier planes returned to the Manila area Sunday, destroying 249 Japanese planes, to raise their two-day toll to 440 and running their shipping score to six sunk and 24 damaged.

Admiral Nimitz, announcing the continued neutralization of the Manila area in a communique yesterday, reported additional "heavy damage" was inflicted on ground installations.

Five ships were sunk Sunday and five more, plus several cargo ships, were damaged. One ship was sunk Saturday and five plus several cargo ships damaged.

Admiral Nimitz said the total of cargo ships damaged on both days was 14.

Expect Gradual Work Stoppage By "Zombies"

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—(CP)—With no elaboration from Defence Minister McNaughton on his plan to return home defence troops on essential work projects back to the army, the best speculation in the capital yesterday was that the process would be gradual.

One source said the immediate return of troops to civilian jobs would be to stop the flow of draftees—said to be very large in number. It was estimated fewer than 2,000 of the 70,000 home defence troops were holding civilian jobs.

"I'm pretty sure that Gen. McNaughton didn't mean by his speech that these men would remain at their desks and march back to barracks," said a usually well-informed source.

Rumor Canucks Intally May Go to Holland

In Italy with those in Holland, assuming the Gen. St. Laurent and Field Marshal Montgomery will approve such a plan.

The resignation of Maj. Gen. P. J. Montague, general officer in charge of the administration at CMHQ, as well as of Gen. Stuart, is expected, said The Telegraph, one of three London morning papers to publish ball-column reports from Canadian correspondents about the controversy. The subsequent Ottawa announcement said Gen. Montague would continue to hold his present post.

Gen. Stuart's position is regarded as untenable in Ottawa military circles since his reports provided much of the foundation on which Col. Ralston (former Canadian defence minister) who resigned last week based his case for sending conscript troops overseas," the Telegraph said.

"More significant it is said Gen. Stuart was the chief of the general staff who sided with Col. Ralston when the decision was taken to break up the Canadian army and send a division and later a corps into action with the 8th Army in Sicily."

Rains Slow Reds Outside Budapest

LONDON, Nov. 8.—(CP)—The promise of explosive action hung today over the long Eastern Front, where for the past two days Moscow has announced there have been no essential changes.

Torrential rains hindered Red Army troops jabbing at the outskirts of Budapest. The Russians were moving infantry units into the front lines inside their tanks, while Soviet artillery plumed shells into the city.

Berlin said the Russians were preparing for a new large-scale attack toward Tarnopol in southwest Poland from the Soviet bridgehead on the west side of the Vistula river into the city.

Geoffrey Dawson, Influential U.K. Journalist, Dies

LONDON, Nov. 8.—(CP)—Geoffrey Dawson, 70, editor of the London Times for two periods, 1915-19 and 1923-41, died yesterday.

As editor of the authoritative Times, often the voice of the British government on matters of high international importance, Mr. Dawson probably was the most influential journalist in Britain.

He was educated at Eton and Oxford university and at the end of the last century became an official at the colonial office. From 1901-1905 he was private secretary to Lord Milner in South Africa, and then for five years edited the Johannesburg Star.

Spectacular Blaze Destroys Elevator At Dawson Creek

Exclusive To The Edmonton Bulletin

DAWSON CREEK, Nov. 8.—Spectacular fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the Midland and Pacific Grain Company elevator last evening.

Fire engines from the United States Army post at Dawson Creek, the Dawson Creek fire brigade and a tender from the NA railway shops at Dawson aided by the fact that no wind was blowing, were able to save the nearby United Grain Growers elevator.

The loss of grain is estimated at 50,000 bushels with a total loss of nearly $200,000. The elevator was built in 1922 with the annex being completed in 1939 and was operated by Mr. C. McLeod.

States German People Deserve "Brutalization"

The people of Germany deserve "complete and absolute brutalization" in the opinion of Major Kenneth Maxwell Brown, veteran of five campaigns with the Montgomery's famed Eighth Army. He expressed his views on what should be done to Germany in an address, "Through Defeat to Victory" which he gave before a joint luncheon meeting of the Edmonton Gyre club and the Chamber of Commerce.

"There are two ways of looking at Germany," he said, "from the realist point of view or from the humanitarian point of view. Taken from the realist point of view they should be treated on their record, and according to my reckoning Germany had plunged the sword into war three times during the last 50 years and has killed more than 20,000,000 people.

MUST BE "BRUTALIZED"

"I say the realists should be given the first opportunity of the people of Germany and when they are through with them they should be treated on their record, and according to my reckoning Germany had plunged the sword into war three times during the last 50 years and has killed more than 20,000,000 people.

Having seen so many men, my friends and countrymen, and your friends and countrymen, of having seen hundreds of them smashed, of having seen hundreds wandering about the world place to place with no food, has taught me this one lesson. I am convinced that we must be as sacred, solemn duty to perform, no matter what the cost, to the individually or collectively. We must give everything if necessary to secure an end to war. We must provide the means to insure peace."

Major Brown went to France in 1929 with the British forces and commanded his company in the Eighth Army, which spearheaded the Allied invasion of Europe. During the interwar period he participated in the battle of North Africa, the invasion of Sicily and Italy.

CREW OF CROPS

Speaking of the German Air Corps he said the troops were the cream of the crop, and the prisoners they took were arrogant, confident and wildly Nazi.

The British army was probably the finest ever as a result of the leadership of Montgomery and the trying conditions of desert warfare. Major Brown labelled the Dierps Front as a D-Day and if it had been for the Canadian and British troops as "probably one of the most important single jobs done by anyone in this war."

"After the raids on Dieppe and St. Nazaire, the German high command was convinced the Allies would invade Europe through one of the channel ports," he said. "They were convinced we were gathering information on the best way to take a port. Consequently they built up their defenses at all the ports in France, using their finest troops and then of course you all know what happened when we landed on the beaches at Normandy."

"Two synthetic ports capable of handling as much tonnage as any port in Europe were towed to the beaches and were operating at full capacity within a couple of days."

Major Brown gave a brief outline of fighting on the Normandy Front.

Pointing out the value of the Italian campaign, Major Brown said there were approximately 35 divisions of Germans on the Western Front on D-Day and if it had been for the Italian campaign there would have been 50 divisions.

Herbert Hunt, president of the Gyre club, was chairman of the meeting and the speaker was introduced by James Walker, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

W. Buchanan, secretary of the Gyre club, gave a vote of thanks to the speaker.

Roosevelt Wins Fourth Term By Big Margin

With the civilian ballots, the trend varied. In some states it was for the president in others for Dewey.

With Dewey conceding the election to President Roosevelt, interest turned toward the congressional contests in which Republican leaders had hoped a regular control of the House. But as usual in Presidential election years, the issue in the main race was reflected in the congressional outcome.

ROOSEVELT STAYS UP

The President stayed up until shortly after 3:30 a.m., EWT, listening to the news, working papers down to nibble on his own calculations and conferring by telephone with his scattered lieutenants. Between times he joshed with his White House aides gathered with him at Hyde Park and talked to the neighbors who assembled a couple of thousand strong in the grounds of the "big house" around midnight.

DEWEY CONCESSION

"It is clear," Dewey had said to the reporters assembled at night quarters, that Mr. Roosevelt has been re-elected for a fourth term, and every good American will wholeheartedly accept the will of the people. I extend to Mr. Roosevelt my hearty congratulations and my earnest hope for a speedy and lasting peace and the restoration of tranquility among our people."

"This was a little more than his supporters and expressing confidence in the difficult years ahead during providence will guide and protect the President of the United States. And then the Deweys went snoring to their way."

NEWARK, N.J., Nov. 8.—(CP)—

President Roosevelt led Thomas Dewey 910,087 votes to 803,751, a margin of 3,657 districts reported, an unofficial count showed, today. Counting of the servicemen's vote leaves the issue in doubt. New Jersey's 16 electoral college votes went to Roosevelt in 1940.

No Announcement After Three-Hour Session of Cabinet

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—(CP)—The federal cabinet held a three-hour sitting yesterday but no statement followed the meeting, the first since Friday.

Agriculture Minister Gardiner, who has returned from the West, was present.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King, who will give a half-hour radio address Wednesday night on "Support for the Canadian Army Overseas," addressed to his cabinet colleagues and may have done so yesterday.

World Changes Said Certain In New Order

World order of the pre-war years cannot return unchanged and to refuse coming changes would be to invite revolution. Prof. J. Ernest Greigore, vice-president of the National Social Credit party, warned an audience of 150 persons at Masonic Temple Tuesday night.

"Never again will men go hungry before mountains of unused food. Mr. Greigore asserted, pointing to the coming post-war period not that end of the war is nearing. The Social Credit of Canada, social instructor at Laval University, spoke under auspices of Edmonton Social Credit Constitution Association. Other speakers at the evening session included E. Low, National Social Credit leader; Lucien Maynard, K.C., attorney-general, who introduced Mr. Greigore; and N. B. James, Social Credit M.P. for Edmonton, acting chairman.

FORMULA OF LEISURE

Mr. Greigore, who spoke in French as well as English, declared Social Credit is a formula of the leisure state, whereas the present system was formula of a world state which led to wars. "Under the present system, the more you work the more you produce, the more you give to the world," he said.

"Under Social Credit, the more you improve production, the more you give to health, leisure and freedom of consumption. Private enterprise has never failed to accomplish its purpose of producing goods, but it has failed before the war. It is the products and professions gave all the services the country required. Only complaint was a lack of buying power, an abundance of goods was on hand."

"It is a mistake to believe economic freedom was abandoned except at the price of freedom," Mr. Greigore told the meeting.

Mr. Low, back in Edmonton after an eight-week tour of Canada, said people all across the country are learning for the first time that Social Credit means a return to common sense.

SPEAKS OF PROGRESS

Speaking of Social Credit progress, the Dominion M.P. Mr. Low stated that British Columbia, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario are forming provincial party organizations and soon will hold provincial conventions.

British Columbia convention has been called for this week. Manitoba and Ontario will hold theirs in January. In Saskatchewan, all provincial constituencies but three have begun Social Credit activity, and a provincial convention will be held in that province starting Dec. 5.

A musical selection at the meeting were provided by Miss Paula Lois Archer, Margaret Carter and Mrs. E. Carter and Grayson Dodd were accompanists.

At the close of business Tuesday, three of the city canvassing team had passed their objectives. The team captain by H. T. Griffiths had passed 14 per cent of quota; Miles Palmer, 10 per cent; G. F. Hagelstein, 10 per cent; A. E. Dingle, 98 per cent; T. Morris, 98 per cent; R. E. Frizell, 98 per cent; G. Hulsehorn, 98 per cent; I. Nichols, 98 per cent; K. P. McKenzie, 98 per cent; R. F. A sharp contrast in the nature of people drawn to the attention of Victory Loan officials Wednesday morning. One weary salesman reported that he spent the whole of Tuesday evening selling one 150 bond. Another salesman called on a family which included the parents and three daughters. Each of the five members had the subscription ready and quickly completed application forms. He learned that a son and a son-in-law have been killed

City of Metz Is Outflanked By Third Army

Vosneux, virtually completing the capture of the village 28 miles southwest of Cologne after a bitter fight in close quarters in its streets.

Heavy German pressure forced the Americans to yield a little more ground southeast of Vosneux today, but the loss was more than made up by the success in the village itself, which was cleared of German troops and a half-held in the eastern outskirts.

DRIVE FROM HAMEL

On the southeastern approaches to Cologne, a German counter-attack drove American 1st Army troops out of the hamlet of Kommercheldt, some 15 miles south of Aachen, but the Americans held firmly to ground 500 yards to the northwest and edged closer to Schmidt, a mile to the southeast.

Kommercheldt was the third town to be won and lost in the period of a few days at the tip of the deepest Allied salient in Germany. The swaying street battle between the Germans and a half-northwest of Kommercheldt, raged on into its third day on a rising scale of fury.

Both the Americans and the Germans threw reinforcements of tanks and infantry into the struggle for Vosneux, field reports said.

OPEN WITH BARRAGE

The Americans sloped ahead on a drive for Metz, but the Germans broke a week's long lull on the 3rd Army front.

FALL IN HOLLAND

An almost complete lull settled over the 2nd Army group front in the Netherlands and other isolated troops in the northwest corner of the Scheldt Island the only activity reported.

A dispatch from Antwerp disclosed that Allied messengers already had begun the task of sweeping the Scheldt approaches to that port, third largest in the world, to open the way for ships to keep them from interfering with the port to supply a winter offensive.

Nippon Airfields Heavily Pounded

GEN. MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Philippines, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Liberators bombers dropped 200 tons of bombs on Japanese airfields in islands ringing the Visayan Sea, during the past 24 hours to keep them from interfering with American invasion operations at Leyte. MacArthur said at least 15 parked planes were destroyed, three interceptors shot down, and the runways cratered.

SALESMEN MEET

A meeting of all city salesmen was held Wednesday morning at which R. V. Price, city chairman of the National War Finance Committee, outlined the needs for the remainder of the week. If Edmonton is to equal the sales made during last loan $1,940,000 must be raised before the end of the week. This means a daily requirement of about $45,000 during each of the next four days.

RURAL UNITS REACHED 77.5 PER CENT

Rural units have reached 77.5 per cent of their objective with 12 units now reported over the top of their objectives.

Military personnel in Alberta have established a perfect record in the Seventh Victory Loan with every one of 13 groups in the province attaining its objective.

2nd Secret Weapon Germans Say New 'V-2' Being Fired at London

LONDON, Nov. 8.—(UPI)—The DNB German News Agency reported that a Nazi communication announced London has been under fire of "V-2"—the second German secret weapon—four times in the last week.

Crush Resistance

Joint army-navy announcement said that the possibility of attack on the Atlantic coast by German rocket or robot weapons existed. The German communication said: "After the area of Greater London had since June 15 with only short interruptions and in varying strength been under the fire of V-1s this fire has for some weeks been intensified by the use of the far more effective weapon, V-2."

(Stockholm dispatches prominently displayed by the London Daily Mail reported more than a month ago that Britain had been attacked by V-2's which were described as stratobalistic rocket projectiles carrying about 12 tons of high explosive. These dispatches said the V-2 was extremely inaccurate and the Germans would soon abandon it because they could not determine whether their shots were landing in the target area.)

Corps Association Holds Ladies' Night

Vocal solo selections were given by Clement Schreiner, Miss Kibbel, Jack Williams and Mrs. George L. Hudson. Miss Eileen Cleary gave a selection on the accordion and Archie Bishart a violin solo.

Also included on the program was a comedy act by Jack Jones, Billie Ness and James Dent, and a sword dance and reel and the reel established by the Misses Edith Davidson, Jennal Stewart, Betty Carney and Edith Johnston.

Frank and Complete

Prime Minister Mackenzie King, it is announced, will go on the air tonight with a broadcast which, it is presumed, will deal with the resignation of the Hon. J. L. Ralston, and appointment of General A. G. McNaughton as Minister of National Defence. The broadcast will be made at 8 p.m. and will be "Support for the Canadian Army Overseas."

Such a statement from the Prime Minister is badly needed. The country has been shocked and dismayed, not only by the appointment of General McNaughton to this onerous post, after he had retired from the army because of ill-health and incapacity, but also by the statements made by General McNaughton since his appointment.

Canada's military establishment is unable to understand why the drafted army of 72,000 men was trained and drilled for years, at a cost of hundreds of millions of dollars, if it was not to be used when needed.

They are unable to understand why, when it requires six months or more to train young volunteers in the militia, these reinforcements are not sought in the obvious place among well trained drafted men.

They are unable to understand why Bill 80—the plebiscite of 1942—was ever put to the people if the Government did not intend to carry out the plebiscite then delivered by such a huge majority.

Canadian are entitled, therefore, to expect from Mr. King tonight a frank and complete statement of the facts.

Roosevelt Again

As Canadians had confidently expected, Franklin Delano Roosevelt has been elected for the fourth time to the presidency of the United States.

This decision will be gratifying to most Canadians and most British persons throughout the world, not because they entertained any sentiment of hostility to Roosevelt or to the Government of the United States, but because, so inebriated as many election promises, Mr. Roosevelt is a known quantity and Governor Dewey is relatively an unknown quantity.

Mr. Roosevelt has demonstrated a wide world view, an acute appreciation of international problems, and the willingness to throw the unparalleled resources of the United States into a co-operative effort to maintain peace. He has demonstrated the generous friendship towards the other English-speaking nations.

It is possible that Governor Dewey would have made a more brilliant record in particular. But there was a chance involved. So Canadians, paying full tribute to his genius and his statesmanship, feel that Mr. Roosevelt would not be returned.

This election illustrates how little precedent matters when vital national issues are at stake. The record of Mr. Roosevelt as a war leader was greater than any precedent.

This was essentially a contest of personalities in which the more powerful and experienced personality won.

Building Up the Assessment

It is good news for the taxpayers that at least $2,500,000 will be added to Edmonton's assessment for 1945 because of new buildings erected and other improvements made to property. Approximately three times this amount has been added in the same way since the 1932-33 year.

When the assessment was because property has been built upon or otherwise improved, the basis of taxation is broadened, there are more pockets where the needed city revenue will be drawn. This is peculiarly true when lots brought into use are bought from the city, since these are transferred to the non-taxable to the taxable classification.

There have been times when the assessment went up "like a balloon" mainly for the reason that real estate values were booming. Later on it went down like a deflated balloon when those values were found to be fictitious.

The present steady rise is not the result of hoisting the supposed value of town lots, vacant or improved. It is the answer to a constant and consistent demand for more value and value of houses actually built and improvements actually made. The assessment now is not being marked up; it is being built.

The difference is vitally important.

Civic Cultural Centre

With the idea of rallying all interested individuals and groups behind a joint effort to secure a civic cultural centre for Edmonton, the Allied Arts Council has called a meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in the public library.

It is proposed that this centre should provide accommodation for a civic auditorium, a museum of arts and creative workshops in the fields of graphic arts, music, theatre, radio, handicrafts, etc.

There has been a tendency in the past to feel that such institutions were mere frills on the edge of a completed civilization. That view does not prevail today. Enlightened people are aware that the cultural development of any community is that community's richest asset.

For of what use is a prolong life and make life luxurious without enriching it? The depth of life is more important than its length or breadth.

Culture adds depth to life. And a cultural centre will promote that process.

Another Allied Army

General de Gaulle has had the satisfaction of seeing the re-constituted French army stage its first big parade. His gratification would be the greater because the review took place in the south-western territory which Mussolini grabbed when he delivered his traitorous "stab in the back" of protest.

That happens to be also the mountainous region which borders northern Italy, where Hitler's army of occupation is making its last desperate stand. Italian soldiers and when France's new army has been equipped and sufficiently trained, it may find an opportunity to avenge the country's wrongs by helping to liquidate the Fuehrer's forces in Mussolini's former mountain stronghold.

No hint is given of the size of this re-constituted army. But, combining the Maquis and young men from all parts of the country who came of age during the captivity, it may well run into hundreds of thousands.

The Nazis lost 600,000 men in their evacuation of France. In their place stands this new French army, perhaps even more approaching that figure in numbers. That doubles the Fuehrer's loss in relative fighting strength.

Japanese casualties in the Philippines are seven for each Allied soldier killed or wounded. The ratio was also the same in the young volunteers in the militia to the east and south. Considering his long training and extensive experience in rough-and-tumble jungle warfare, the Japanese were against inferior forces, taken unwarmed.

The steamer Northwest has been laid up for the winter at Prince Albert and will sail through overhaul. Notices of the proposed establishment of a Roman Catholic separate school in South Edmonton have been posted. The name of the district will be St. Agnes.

The result of the election to the Northwest Assembly so far as known indicate the reelection of the late Premier, Mr. J. G. Macdonald, to the office of re-election. One of the candidates in East Edmonton, Mr. J. G. Macdonald, is a native of the Northwest Territories, which would naturally increase the cost of government, and five of the members of the late Assembly who are at this date in the Northwest Territories.

Mr. Macdonald was a member of the executive committee, and a popular, well known. He was defeated in the election to the office of re-election. Mr. Macdonald was a member of the executive committee, and a popular, well known. He was defeated in the election to the office of re-election.

competitor—the Wehrmacht—did the statistical argument of a political fact of vast importance.

In the same way, the battle in the Philippine waters has transformed a statistical fact into a political reality.

The Japanese have proven in their short naval history that they are capable of challenging great naval powers. The Japanese navy, it is estimated, is now the second largest in the world.

In reality that was the birth of Japan as a great naval power. But it is not enough to have a great navy. It is also necessary to have a great fleet. The Japanese fleet is now the second largest in the world.

That the British naval tradition followed closely our disaster at Manila. At Manila we were thrown out of the Eastern Pacific, and the British navy, the Philippines—fell into Japanese hands.

But the inevitable course of history cannot be changed by a single tactical trick. The Japanese could only have succeeded if we had succumbed to their cleverness and inferiority. Actually that blow set America on her feet, that thing happened which was pre-ordained should have happened.

WINNING golf competitions has been more or less a habit with Henry Martell, present holder of the Alberta open title, ever since he won his first championship back in 1934. Henry leaves next Tuesday for Vancouver on his way to the big War Bond tournament in Portland, Ore., a trip made possible through co-operation of several of Edmonton's leading business men.

Martell, incidentally, got his first start in the game when he was only 12 years old and some other boys came across an old golf club in a lane. The first and natural step was to locate some golf balls, and as one of the city courses proved good hunting ground, Henry was soon launched on a golfing career. He went to work with the club and balls on the Hudson's Bay Reserve, not far from the present airport.

Henry won his first competition, the Caspianopen cup, in 1932, but his initial major win was the Edmonton city open, did not come until two years later. Joe Pryke was the favorite, but he finished the runner-up. The final round was played at Municipal. The two were tied playing the 15th hole (285 yards). Pryke drove to the green and put in a birdie three. Henry drove to the green and sank a putt for an eagle two. The pair were allowed to continue going to the 16th (40 yards). Pryke made it in five strokes. Martell got in two good wood shots and a birdie gave him a one-stroke win.

TEN CITY TITLES IN ROW
MARTELL won the Edmonton title again in 1933 and '34 and he has held the title ever since. To admit, however, he would have won the first round that year had it not been for a very lucky break on the 11th.

His opponent was Gerry Rice and the two were all-square playing that hole (105 yards). Gerry got away two good shots. Henry's second was a bogey headed for the river, but the ball hit a golf bag on the shoulder of a player, who had swung through, and it bounced back toward the green and into a birdie.

Jack Staley was the other finalist in the '38 city amateur and he had Henry down on the 11th at the result of a 4-under par score, but eventually lost two and one. Martell has played five Olympics. In 1936 he won a gold medal, but Henry was the winner in three amateur finals since '36. In '38 he turned in a particularly fine round, but Henry was the winner in three amateur finals since '36.

FIRST ALBERTA IN '36
FIRST Alberta amateur title went to Martell in 1936, when he defeated the favorite, Steve Victoria of Calgary. After being four down on the 11th, he won on a 3 and 2.

McCool Wins Warm Place In Hearts of Toronto Fans

By FRASER MACDUGALL
TORONTO, Nov. 8.—(CP)—Frank McCool of the Toronto Maple Leafs is the only sports writer playing in the National Hockey League but if he were assigned to write a story about himself the modest nature of Calgary would probably leave out anything boosting his hockey play.

"I've been pretty lucky to say," McCool described his showing in the first four games in the NHL, in which nine goals have been scored against him in four games for an average of 2.25 a game. "None of our games yet have been tough."

But his goalkeeping is gradually winning for him a warm place in the hearts of Toronto fans, quite ready to be critical of the successor to the agile Paul Bischoff who was the favorite last season through his sensational play.

DISCHARGED FROM ARMY
Then like the earliest war of 26-year-old Irish Canadian covers up the nets and the care he uses in clearing the puck. They first look to him when he held New York Rangers to one goal in the opening game of the season. Their confidence wavered somewhat when the Black Hawks scored five against him in a freewheeling game at Chicago. But he cancelled their doubts completely by holding Canadians to one goal at Montreal last Thursday on the eve of his 26th birthday.

McCool worked eight months as a sports writer, joining the staff of the Calgary Alberta after a year at the New York Rangers last season. It was the same league that brought him discharge from the Canadian army with which he served for about a year. However, he now is having little trouble with the puck and he is careful.

He is as Irish as his name. "But I don't think I'm any relation to Finn McCool," the legendary figure who gave the name to the Irish pub in the city.

"Don't you have anything that's not exceptionally glamorous? I just want to please myself!"

Schriner and Howe Tie for Lead

11 Points

MONTREAL, Nov. 8.—(CP)—The blistering scoring pace that Toronto's Schriner-Carr-Bond line has been setting for the National Hockey League was reflected in the first weekly official scoring list today with the Toronto trio holding down three of the first four places.

At that, the high-powered Toronto trio was just a shade ahead of Detroit's Howe-McMurray combination.

Swedish-born Schriner was tied with Syd Howe for top spot, each with 11 points while the two other members of the Maple Leaf line were tied for third spot with 10 points each.

Mud Brunette held down fifth spot with nine points, two ahead of Detroit's perennial Bill Cowley and three ahead of linemate Jack McEwen.

Westglen High Beaten 10-7

Vic Bantams Win School Title

Victoria Bantams captured the city high school six-man football championship Tuesday when they stopped Westglen 10-7 on the losers' home field to make a clean sweep of the three-game schedule. The two clubs both entered yesterday's clash unbeaten and unscathed upon.

The game was a real tussle all the way for the two powerful bantam teams, but Vic, led by the outstanding Alf Smith, came through with touchdowns in the second and third quarters to gain their victory. Smith registered the winners' two touchdowns while Alf Savage picked up the entire seven points for Westglen. Vic's record of not having a single point scored against them was washed out first when Savage rushed in to pull down Smith behind the goal line in the first quarter. The ball was on Vic's 50-yard line when it was snapped back to Smith behind the line.

The winners started their blitz in the second frame. After they worked the ball down to the Westglen 30, Smith galloped around the right end for his first touchdown, which put Victoria out in front 5-0. Vic added another five points in the third when Smith plunged through the Westglen line and ran 20 yards for a touchdown, his longest of a number of runs.

Westglen came back in the last canto for their water score. With the pigskin resting on the center field line, Charlie Chinnock took the snap and heaved a long forward pass to Savage, who took it on the 30 and scampered over. Vic left the westenders for the remainder of the game, however, to win out.

Billy Rodnar, star back of the Westglen club was another stand-out of the contest, running back a number of kicks for nice distances.

Today's Sport Parade

By Jack Cuddy

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—You'd swear that the cue is coming right out of Willie Mosconi's forehead when the world's champion pool player buckles down over the green baize table for one of his deadly-accurate long shots.

Perhaps it's this peculiarity of getting his handsome face right down on the cue, or perhaps it's his delicate touch—or a combination of both—that has made Mosconi the greatest long shooter in the history of the pastime known to the carnage trade as "pocket billiards."

Willie's mastery of the long shot—his ability to duck the object ball unerringly at table's length—distinguishes him from pocket-billiard champions of the past, men who were virtually flawless performers in other departments. This distance artistry enabled him to establish competitive records that outlasted even the great Ralph Greenleaf, who dominated the sport for years.

IN NEW YORK ON TOUR

THE 21-year-old champion from Sylvania, O., is in New York on tour. He is a slender, cat-like man of medium height. Slight tints of gray are barely perceptible in his curly black hair. His graceful rhythm and precision come naturally, for Willie is the nephew of the famous Mosconi daggers—Louis and Charley—who did fantastic sliding dances for so many seasons on the old Keith-Orpheum time.

Willie opened match play Monday at Julien's 14th Street Academy with Joe Proctia of Glensville, N.Y., eastern states champion. Willie is a heavy favorite because he is the champion competitive "runner" of all time. For example, Mosconi made a tremendous splash in the pool world in the 1934-35 league tournament when he first won the world title.

At that time the world record was the best game of 125 points in championship play. It was Greenleaf's 125-0 victory in two innings over Frank Taborski at Detroit in 1928. Greenleaf performed this feat only once in his competitive lifetime, although champion 16 times.

BROKE RECORD NINE TIMES

Mosconi not only broke that record once in the '34-35 tournament, by going 125-0 in one inning, but he did it nine times before that competition was completed.

Willie, 21-year-old, 5'10", 140 lbs., is from Sylvania, O. He is a heavy favorite because he is the champion competitive "runner" of all time. For example, Mosconi made a tremendous splash in the pool world in the 1934-35 league tournament when he first won the world title.

SUMMARY
First quarter: 1. Westglen, safety-touch (Savage), 5 points.
Second quarter: 2. Victoria, touchdown (Smith), 5 points.
Third quarter: 3. Victoria, touchdown (Smith), 5 points.
Fourth quarter: 4. Westglen, touchdown (Savage), 5 points.

Mosconi began playing at the age of seven. He won an Eastern sectional tournament at 20, and moved up to the big time. Mosconi's manager, Sylvester Livingston, says the pocket billiard championship is worth about $20,000 a year to the holder in normal times, but not more, however, Sylvester admits. "Willie makes a very nice living for his wife, two kids and himself—even now."

Mourning Period For Queen's Father Considered Likely

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—(CP)—Government House, already in mourning for Princess Beatrice, aunt of Princess Alice, has not yet received official notice from the lord chamberlain in London about holding state mourning for the Earl of Strathmore, Queen Elizabeth's father, who died yesterday morning. ## Inter-Service Cage Schedule Starts Nov. 22

Opening date of the Inter-Service Basketball League has been changed from Nov. 15 to Nov. 22 and the number of teams reduced from 10 to eight.

The league as now constituted consists of the following clubs: U.S. Signals, Namas Air Base, Red Deer Army, Northwest Air Command, Alaskan Headquarters, USAAF VAF, USAAF Clippers, and USAAF Officers.

HMCS Nonsuch, member of the league as originally formed, has decided to join the City League as announced some days ago. The American Red Cross was the only entry.

As originally planned, the Service league will have three double-headers each week and the playing nights are Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays. All games will be at Northwest Air Command gym until the new recreation centre is completed at the U.S. Air base. The first half of the schedule will end on Dec. 22 and the second will commence on Jan. 4.

Steps From Car: Hit by Another

John Williams, 10350 143 street, struck by one auto as he stepped from another on Union Road road between 142 and 143 streets, about 9:30 p.m. Tuesday, was rushed to the University hospital, suffering from a fracture of the left leg, compound dislocation of the right ankle, bruises and shock, according to city police.

Police named the driver of the car which struck Williams as William Schmidt, Spruce Grove, who stated he had been travelling behind an auto operated by R. L. Lawson, 12320 102 avenue, and was about to pass when he stopped. As he did so, Williams stepped out of the first car and into the side of Schmidt's vehicle.

Police Seeking Motorist Cause Of Two Crashes

City police Wednesday were searching for the driver of an auto which sideswiped two other vehicles late Monday, injuring one person and putting one of the damaged cars out of commission, before sliding into a ditch, coming out again and racing away into the darkness and fog.

Name of the injured person, a boy about 11 years old, was not learned. He was cut about the face by glass when the windshield of the car operated by his mother was smashed in the impact with the first speeding vehicle.

The accident, according to a report given to police by S. B. Wood, 11222 31 street, occurred on the St. Albert road north of the C.N.T. tracks at 10 p.m., while he was driving his car a short distance behind another.

He was a few yards behind the first car, Mr. Wood stated, when a third auto approached from the rear at a "high rate of speed." The last vehicle was forced to travel directly in front of him for a distance, because of an approaching car, until only after he had been identified.

West Provinces Have Much Land For Settlement

Twenty-five and a half million acres of arable land are available in the four western provinces for settlement, according to a report of the director of colonization and agriculture for the Canadian National Railways, stated on his arrival here from a meeting of the Edmonton branch of the Canadian Society of Technical Agriculturists, of which body he is president.

He said that this land is accessible to railway facilities, and is located in a recent survey made by the Canadian National Railways, and the Northern Alberta Railways.

Mr. McGowan said that the doubling of Canadian population would provide a higher standard of living for Canadians living close to the land, and that the demand for all products would increase, and the nation's dependence of export trade would depend on the effective functioning of the economic system in the post-war period, Mr. McGowan said.

Killed in Action

P.O. F. G. LANGFORD

Edmonton Flier Killed Overseas

P.O. Frederick George Langford, son of Mrs. R. L. Hughes, 11915 91 street, has been reported killed in action, according to word received from the International Red Cross. He was reported missing over Germany on Feb. 22 last.

P.O. Langford enlisted in the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery in 1938, and was stationed at Winnipeg at the outbreak of war. He went overseas with the first contingent of Canadian fliers in November, 1939, was in the London blitz of 1940 and went through the action at Dunkirk.

He joined the RCAF in 1942, coming back to Canada to complete training, at Nepean, Man., and Medicine Hat, where he received his wings in April, 1943. Proceeding overseas again in June, 1943, he was commended Feb. 13 of this year. He attended Eastwood and Technical High schools, and was the former Edmonton Bulletin carrier. Besides his mother and father, he is survived by three sisters, Eileen, Betty and Edna, all at home.

City, District Airmen Return From Overseas

Pilot Officers G. W. Logan and J. R. Mowbray, navigators with heavy bombers squadrons of the RCAF overseas, were among a group of Edmonton and district airmen on furlough to Canada who returned to Edmonton Tuesday.

P.O. Logan who was born in Holden, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Logan, 1004 110 street. He has been overseas about nine years and one half.

P.O. Mowbray is the son of W. D. Mowbray, 11622 87 street, well known to Edmontonians. P.O. Mowbray has completed one tour of operations as a navigator. Himself a courier he would like to get in a few games during his leave home. He has been two years away from home.

Neither of the airmen would discuss exploits overseas. Both have participated in many of the big raids on Hitler's Fortress Europe.

Edmonton looks good to them although it is still strange because of the great growth.

"I hardly knew the old town with all the new buildings and wartime houses," P.O. Mowbray said.

Both plan to stay in Edmonton to arrive home from P.O. T. P. Atkinson, 12712 127 street; P.O. J. D. Atkinson, 12712 127 street; P.O. J. D. Atkinson, 12712 127 street.

The Inquiring Reporter

What do you think of plans to conduct a business and household survey throughout Alberta to determine post-war industrial possibilities for the province?

THE ANSWERS

GORDON STOCKTON, salesman: "Anything to prevent a post-war slump in the country's industry is a good idea. If manufacturers can find out ahead of time what the post-war public wants most as soon as peacetime production can be resumed, they will be well on a program of immediate conversion to produce those goods. There is much money to be lost, and even provincial markets could be given up to wide-awake industrialists in other parts of the country."

DONALD WILSON, salesman: "Such a survey would not be to the benefit of the last decade but would be of substantial help to industrial planners for the immediate post-war period. There will be a rush demand for certain types of commodities now in short supply and manufacturers will do well to find out what things are needed most."

ELEANOR HARRIS, window dresser: "I don't know much about the survey. If it is carried through by the post-war period, it would give the government a lot of information it doesn't think it is necessary to give it. It will be an expensive undertaking."

School Board Will Re-Open Calder School

Reconditioning of the old Calder school for the use of children now living in Camp 505, rather than attempt to utilize the camp mess hall, was decided Tuesday night at the inaugural meeting of the Edmonton public school board.

While the old school's condition was realized as being far from satisfactory, the board felt that the building was its own, whereas the camp property was not, that the latter was without plumbing, and that there was no guarantee it could be used indefinitely, even after a large required outlay was made. The old school will be ready about Dec. 1, the meeting was told.

Declaration of the election to the board of George M. Cormie, G. Alex. Gemeny and Mrs. Irma Ross was read, and congratulations offered to the three members.

ELECT CHAIRMAN

Nominations and elections of officers for 1945 resulted in the choice of R. L. Sutherland as chairman of the board; Mrs. J. Ross, chairman school management and health committee; R. F. Robertson, chairman finance; F. J. Newson, chairman conference committee.

Present policy of the school board in making grants to community league risks will be continued. It was decided, board grants are $75 to a class A risk, and $50 to B and C class risks.

Permission to use the assembly hall one night a week was granted to the high school basketball players. Increased attendance at schools in the city, with many students participating in various activities, made it impossible for everyone to be accommodated between the hours of 4 p.m. and 8 p.m., it was stated. A second request concerning University basketball players, will be looked into.

SUGGEST ARCHITECT

The school board has no school architect, said R. S. Sheppard, superintendent of schools, concerning the appointment of Mrs. Mollie Newton as teacher of the additional classroom opening at Highlands school on Nov. 13.

Trustee and parental indifference were referred to in the report of the attendance officer. During October, 18 cases of the former and 21 cases of the latter were investigated.

Highlight of the school year, he continued, was the amount of war savings stamps and victory bonds purchased by scholars or their schools.

Up until Oct. 31, a total of $2,290 worth of war savings stamps had been purchased, an increase of $700 over the same period one year ago. In addition, McLaughlin commercial high school, up to Oct. 31, had purchased bonds to the value of $5,500; Weirigh high school purchases amounted to $2,800.

War Tragedy Revealed by City Visitor

One of the greatest family tragedies of the Second World War was uncovered here Tuesday with the visit to Edmonton of Patric Holteran, 24 years old, of the British Merchant Marine, Royal Mail Line.

Young Holteran has lost his mother, three sisters and seven brothers since the start of the war. Two sisters are still serving with the Women's Army Corps in Britain, while the father, Willem Holteran, a retired member of the Royal Marines, farms in South Ireland.

One of the brothers, Peter, was a twin to Patric. Patric himself was on ships three times that were torpedoed and has suffered burns and other injuries.

KILLED IN BOMB RAID

His mother and three sisters were killed during a bombing raid on London, Jan. 2, 1941. The sisters, members of the Women's Air Force, were on leave at the time and the mother was visiting them from Southern Ireland.

Of the seven boys who gave their lives for King and country, Thomas, 34, was killed at Dunkirk, while with the Royal Welsh Fusiliers in 1940.

Jack, 32, and Peter, 34, were both killed while serving with the Royal Artillery in North Africa in 1943.

Jonathan, 30, was killed in Syria, May 26, while with the Royal Marines. Lost his life when his ship went down in the Mediterranean in Aug. 1942. Walter, 41, was killed in Normandy on June 10, 1944.

Peter, Patric's twin brother, was carried aboard a British aircraft carrier in the South Pacific early in 1941. While in Edmonton, Patric is

Strange But True

MONTREAL, Nov. 8.—CP—Tire-tying motorists could hardly believe it yesterday, when police officials here announced 20 out of 500 stolen tires recovered during the last three months had not yet been returned to their owners—because there were no claimants. Do you see . . . behind the headlines . . . our boys in the thick of it?

Do you hear . . . the voice of a wounded boy you used to know calling to the stretcher-bearers?

Is it just news, that you read with your breakfast or on your chesterfield at night? It isn't news to them . . . it's hell!

From a bullet-spattered trench all they can see is a few yards of blackened, blasted earth, strewn with the bodies of those boys you used to know . . . their chums . . . the dying and the dead!

All they know is that this bit of ridge must be taken, this river must be crossed, this last machine-gun nest must be silenced.

Do you ever figure what it costs to hold each bit of ridge . . . to cross each tiny river? . . . Lives! Lives! More Lives!
